

EVERY VOTE EQUAL

A State-Based Plan for Electing the President by National Popular Vote

“This book describes the ‘Agreement Among the States to Elect the President by National Popular Vote’—an innovative approach that is a politically practical way to achieve the goal of nationwide popular election of the President. It has my enthusiastic support.” —Cong. John B. Anderson (R–Illinois and Independent presidential candidate)

“The President and Vice President should be chosen by the same method every other elective office in this country is filled—by citizen voters of the United States in a system which counts each vote equally. . . . I unequivocally support this new strategy to provide for the direct election of the President and Vice President. This new approach is consistent with the Constitution. . . . It’s refreshing to know states have the ability under the Constitution to step up and create the sensible solution Americans have long been supporting.”

—U.S. Senator Birch Bayh (D–Indiana)

“The people have supported the direct election of the president for over fifty years. In this book, Dr. Koza suggests a way for states to come together and make it happen. . . . I strongly support and applaud any good-faith effort to make the direct election of the president a reality and commend to you the intriguing approach offered in the ‘Agreement Among the States to Elect the President by National Popular Vote’ described in this book.”

—Cong. John Buchanan (R–Alabama)

“The ingenious approach put forward in this book provides, for the first time, a solution that is achievable. It does not rely on unrealistic assumptions. It can be implemented, if the very people who are relatively disenfranchised in our country will only be awakened to how to do it.”

—Cong. Tom Campbell (R–California and Dean of the Chapman University School of Law)

“What makes the National Popular Vote plan particularly promising is how neatly it fits in with American traditions. A century ago, it was states that first established women’s suffrage and direct election of U.S. Senators. Under the U.S. Constitution it is states that have the power to fix our broken presidential election system. This book provides the roadmap.”

—Cong. Chellie Pingree (D–Maine and former President of Common Cause)

“The National Popular Vote Bill is not a Democratic bill or Republican bill. It is not even a liberal or conservative bill. The National Popular Vote Bill is a bill for Americans interested in both preserving our Electoral College and reforming the shortcomings of our current state-by-state ‘winner-take-all’ system.” —Rep. Laura Brod (R–Minnesota)

“I think it is time we do something to fix this problem and I feel that the National Popular Vote plan is exactly the solution”

—U.S. Senator Jake Garn (R–Utah and Astronaut on Space Shuttle Discovery)

“Innovative new proposal. . . Legislatures across the country should get behind it.” —New York Times

“The Sun-Times News Group backs the concept and applauds the National Popular Vote group for thinking outside the box.”

—Chicago Sun Times
